

Thomas & Associates, Inc./www.artstaffing.com
The leading art staffing and art career service firm presents

How to Find a Job in the Arts:

A Workshop for Students, Recent Graduates and Emerging Professionals

How to Find a Job in the Arts is a two-hour workshop developed specifically for job seekers in the arts and culture sector. Whether you want to work in galleries, museums, art centers, performing arts, or auction houses, experts from Thomas & Associates, Inc. — New York's leading art staffing and art career service firm — will provide you with essential information and action steps to start and advance your career.

WHEN: 6:30-8:30pm, Wednesday, May 23, 2007

WHERE: Support Center for Nonprofit Management
305 Seventh Ave @ 27th Street NY, NY 10001
11th Floor Training Room

Don't miss this important opportunity to:

- ⇒ Understand the current job market and developing trends
- ⇒ Identify your skills & match them to job opportunities
- ⇒ Manage your job search
- ⇒ Strengthen your resume and cover letter
- ⇒ Prepare for and succeed with your job interview

Space is limited! Pre-payment is required. Secure your registration at www.artstaffing.com or contact Jenifer Simon at 212-779-7059.

Special Student & Recent Grad Rate!
$99 w/valid ID

Standard rate
$125 for individuals with
1-5 years experience

Speakers: Geri Thomas, President, has worked in and for arts and cultural organizations internationally for more than 25 years. Jenifer Simon, Training & Careers Associate, has an M.A. in Arts Administration and has certifications in training and professional development.

"The career services you need to get the arts & culture position you want."